

On the social calendar of the past week there were few events of interest to chronicle. Mrs. Ewing's reception, Mrs. Judson's card parties, Mrs. Webber's luncheon, the military ball given by the officers of the N. G. U. and a few minor events comprising the entertainments of the entire week.

In Honor of Mrs. C. F. Richards.

The elaborate event of the week was the luncheon given Friday by Mrs. Thomas G. Webber and Miss Webber in honor of the seventy-fifth birthday of Mrs. C. F. Richards. Small tables were arranged in the parlor, library and dining room, each room being decorated with a different color scheme. The parlor was in yellow, jonquils being used with ferns and smilax. Daylight was excluded, and the lights were shaded in yellow. In the library and dining room pink and green were used, carnations and smilax adorning the tables. Following the dainty menu some musical numbers were given by Professor McClellan and Miss Arvilla Clark.

Mrs. Webber's guests were Mrs. M. A. Taylor, Mrs. Emma Woodruff, Mrs. Amelia Young, Mrs. Lorenzo Snow, Mrs. A. W. Carlson, Mrs. M. G. Clayton, Mrs. Le Grand Young, Mrs. H. J. Emery, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. I. A. Clayton, Miss Teasdale, Miss Richards, Miss Rhoda

Richards, Miss Susanne Nye, Mrs. Frank, Mrs. Nye.

Progressive Euchre.

An unusually entertaining affair was the progressive euchre party given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bennett. The three parlors were effectively decorated with white roses, palms and smilax. A very pretty effect was obtained in the rear parlor by the artistic arrangement of tiny frosted incandescents in a setting of ferns and smilax. Prizes for the greatest number of progressions were won by Mrs. Benson and Mr. Fred Scarff, and the lone hand prize by Mrs. O. K. Lewis.

The invited guests were: Mrs. Sara Bransford, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bransford, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. S. Benson, Dr. and Mrs. J. #### Afternoon Reception.

Mrs. A. C. Ewing gave a reception Thursday afternoon in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Smith of Chicago. The hours were from 2 until 5 and during that time the parlors were crowded with friends eager to greet the guest of honor. The decorations were very beautiful. Violets and lilacs of the valley were used in the parlors and hyacinths in the library. The dining room was in three shades of rose. In the center of the table stood a pyramid of roses shading from a delicate pink to a deep rose, while surrounding it were ferns and candelabra shaded in the same delicate color. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. J. L. Frank, Mrs. S. C. Baldwin and Mrs. W. V. Ebbels. The coffee urn was presided over by Mrs. Pearsall and Mrs. William Akers.

A string quartette stationed in the upper hall furnished music. One hundred and fifty guests were present.

Mrs. Judson's Card Parties.

Two of the brightest and most interesting affairs of the week were the card parties given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Judson. The first occurred Thursday evening, and was a most delightful affair. The parlors were decorated in colors of red and white. American Beauties and white carnations being used in profusion. Prizes were won by Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Linck, Mr. Knox, Mr. Pearl and Mr. McMahon.
